SUBJECT: DAVID CONRAD GLASS (6)
Jack Ruby

Sir:

On the morning of February 17, 1964 this office was notified that the SUBJECT had contacted the Albuquerque office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on Saturday, February 15, 1964 and had told the agents in that office that he was enroute to Dallas to testify in the JACK RUBY trial. The SUBJECT was asked if he had a subpoena as a witness and he stated 'No, but that he was going to be there any how and testify.'

This SUBJECT had previously contacted the Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents in Portland, Oregon and had told the Agents that he had dreamed that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was going to kill the President in the month of November, 1963. The SUBJECT stated that this dream had occurred in July of 1963.

The Dallas F B I Agents stated that the SUBJECT was probably enroute to Dallas and that he was driving a 1960 Oldsmobile sedan, 2 door, color beige, bearing Oregon 1963 license 2Q-7887.

At approximately 11:00 am 2-17-64, the SUBJECT was arrested at the Dallas County District Attorney's Office and had a pistol in his possession. This arrest was effected by A Dallas Police Officer and a Dallas County Deputy Sheriff. SUBJECT also had in his possession a rubber stamp for making cards imprinted 'HELP STAMP OUT KIKES THE NEGROID SENITICS WANT TO INTEGRATE THEIR NEGRO COUSINS --- REACTIONARY NO. 1.' A copy of this stamp is attached to each copy of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

L. D. Stringfellow
